

SUMMER FLUTE WORKSHOP

WHO: Flute players with a minimum of two years playing experience.

WHAT: This is a one-week workshop that will allow you to create music, blend the sounds of the flute, and improve your musicianship to share with others. We will focus on hand position, intonation, technique, articulation, breathing, how to practice effectively, and more with All Region music, scales, solos, etudes, as well as flute choir music.

WHEN: July 9-13, 10:30AM-12:30PM; July 23-27, 5:00PM-7:00PM

WHERE: The bART Center for Music

WHY: Sometimes we get a little rusty over the summer. This weeklong course will provide you the opportunity to stay in shape and be better prepared for the upcoming school year, as well as enjoy playing for yourself!

Marquelle Brown, Flute

and in her active private studio.

BIO: Marquelle Brown graduated with a Masters of Music in Flute Performance and Pedagogy in 1999 from the University of Louisville and a Bachelor's in Music Education from Brigham Young University in 1996. She is passionate about helping students develop their talent, self-confidence, character, and discipline through music. Marquelle has taught many students who have received college scholarships, who have made All-State and All-Region Bands, and who have received superior ratings at Solo and Ensemble contests. She has also taught early childhood music classes. Marquelle has performed with the Jackson Symphony Orchestra and performed with their Piano Trio. She has additionally accompanied the Mid-Ohio Valley Children's Chorus and the Tulsa Children's Chorus. Marquelle studied with Patricia George, Elizabeth Ruppe Weissman, and Fransis Fuge, and has attended masterclasses with world-renowned flutists James Galway, Jeanee Baxstresser, Brad Gardner, Alexa Still, and Mary-Karen Clardy. She currently teaches at the Barthelmes Conservatory
