

The bART Center for Music
Financial Aid Information 2022-2023

To apply for The bART's Financial Aid Program, please complete the entire application and attach the first page of most recently filed federal income tax form (1040, 1040A, 1040EZ). This information is confidential. Awards are based on need. The amount of financial aid is determined by a sliding scale, which considers household income and number of exemptions.

Award Expectations:

1. Consistent attendance at lessons, classes, and/or ensembles.
2. Consistent practice and preparation for lessons, classes, and/or ensembles.
3. Recipient MUST pay tuition bills not covered by financial aid.

How to Apply:

1. Complete all sections of the Financial Aid Application. Only complete, signed applications will be considered.
2. Attach a copy of your most recently filed federal income tax form (1040, 1040A, 1040EZ). If you do not file a federal income tax form, please submit copies of other verification of income and/or support. Proof of Free or Reduced Lunch at school may also be provided in addition to the tax forms (a letter can be provided by your school's administrative office). Applications received without these documents will not be eligible for review.

Learning to play an instrument takes time and commitment. Students must be able to make a commitment to their lessons. This means that students must care for their instrument, practice regularly, and be on time for their lessons. Scholarship students are expected to attend regular lessons and cancel no more than once per month. Can you help the student to meet these commitments?

Yes, I can help the student to meet these commitments.

Please have the prospective scholarship student answer the following questions:

Why are you interested in learning an instrument?

---

---

---

---

Do you play any instruments already? If yes, where did you learn and how long have you been playing? (If you are a returning bART student, you may skip this question.)

---

Do you currently own any instruments? This will be necessary for practicing in between lessons at The bART. If yes, which one(s)?
